

Dear Friends in Christ,

We are told in St. Matthew 27: 3—4b, “ Then Judas, which had betrayed him (Jesus), when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood.

There are too many of us within the church of God who are still making the same mistake as Judas. Judas did not realize that his betrayal would cause the death of his teacher and friend but also have far reaching effect on his life and the lives of his other disciples and followers.

Although Judas repented, he just could not live with himself and therefore went out and hanged himself. It is that life that many of us are living, unable to live with ourselves because of our betrayal and destruction of our friends.

As members of the church, we need to see the effect that our double standard and betrayal of worshippers have had on the church and our personal lives. If Judas was to repent of his sins, I believe that individual who are causing division in the church can also repent, not taking their own lives but begin to live in that newness of life. Let us begin to see and live and not die.
